

INTERNATIONAL PORTFOLIO COMPETITION 2018

Soho Photo Gallery in New York City is pleased to announce its annual Portfolio Competition. Three selected portfolios will be awarded solo exhibits in the Spring of 2018*.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

Located in lower Manhattan, Soho Photo, New York City's longest-running photography gallery is awarding solo shows to three winning photographers. The panel of jurors will make their initial selections based on digital submissions. Final selections will be based on prints.

SUBMISSION

Digital entries must be uploaded at <callforentry.org> where you will find instructions for submitting. The competition is open to all photographers age 18 or older, excluding members of Soho Photo Gallery. Any photographic print medium is acceptable. One portfolio per photographer, please.

WHAT IS A PORTFOLIO?

A portfolio contains 12-20 compositionally and technically strong images, with a consistent theme or topic.

THE JURORS

Members of Soho Photo Gallery's Portfolio Review Committee will jury the competition. The committee has reviewed thousands of portfolios since the gallery's beginning in 1971. In so doing, the gallery has exhibited prints by some of the finest contemporary photographers throughout the world.

 Exact dates will be announced.*

SPONSOR

Pina Zangaro <pinazangaro.com> designers and manufacturers of fine presentation books is providing customized portfolio boxes to each winning photographer.
